

Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) (article 3, 22, 25, 27)

Article 3

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 22

Everyone, as a member of society, has the right to social security and is entitled to 65 realization, through national effort and international co-operation and in accordance with the organization and resources of each State, of the economic, social and cultural rights indispensable for his dignity and the free development of his personality

Article 25

1. Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well - being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.
2. Motherhood and childhood are entitled to special care and assistance. All children, 75 whether born in or out of wedlock, shall enjoy the same social protection.

Article 27

1. Everyone has the right freely to participate in the cultural life of the community, to 81 enjoy the arts and to share in scientific advancement and its benefits.
2. Everyone has the right to the protection of the moral and material interests resulting 82 from any scientific, literary or artistic production of which he is the author.